

Third Sunday after Pentecost

June 26, 2022 - 10:30 a.m.

The Anglican Parish of St. Peter, Winnipeg

Purpose: To be a Christian community seeking to love God, grow in faith, and serve the world.

WE EXTEND A WARM WELCOME TO ALL VISITORS AND NEWCOMERS

In order to facilitate a safe worship experience for everyone,
please keep to the following guidelines:

MASKS are strongly recommended at all times during the worship service, except when receiving Communion. People speaking from the lectern may remove their mask for clearer communication.

SOCIAL DISTANCING is strongly encouraged. You are welcome to sit wherever you like, but please respect the comfort of other parishioners. Please ask for permission before sitting with or approaching other people as some people may prefer to keep a safe distance from others.

NEED TO SIT DURING WORSHIP? There are often long periods of time when we stand during worship, please feel free to sit down at any time.

EXCHANGE THE PEACE with words only, a wave, or nod of the head. No hand shaking or touching at this time.

COMMUNION All are welcome to receive communion. Gluten free wafers are available upon request. Please follow the direction of the sidespeople when coming forward to receive Communion. Please use hand sanitizer at the front of the pews and leave your mask on until it is your turn to receive the bread and wine. Kindly replace your mask, re-sanitize your hands, and return to your seat.

OFFERTORY At this time we will not be passing around the offertory plate. Please place your offertory / envelopes in the plate located by the entrance of the nave at any time before or during the service.

PRAYER BOWL If there is someone for whom you wish silent prayers, you are invited to write their name on one of the slips of paper provided and place it in the prayer bowl at the back of the church (on the sound equipment cabinet.)

WE ARE A NUT AND SCENT AWARE ENVIRONMENT – Many people, especially children are struggling with allergies to nut products with potentially deadly consequences. Many people also have sensitivities to some scents. We have asked parishioners to be aware of this, to refrain from bringing nut products to Church, and from wearing highly scented products.

Following worship you are cordially invited to meet in the parish hall for a time of conversation and refreshments. We strongly recommend that you keep your mask on unless you are seated and consuming food or drink.

Please take your bulletin home to read, record important dates, and recycle

THE HOLY EUCHARIST
THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Prelude: I, The Lord

Acknowledgement of the Land: We take this time to acknowledge that St. Peter's Anglican Church worships on Treaty 1 land, first inhabited by the Anishinaabe, Dakota and Cree people and homeland of the Red River Metis Nation. We recognize the hospitality extended to us. We are truly sorry for the great harm caused by colonialism in the past and to this day. With God's help, we commit to the process of reconciliation to bring healing to relationships and to the land.

Intercessor: Announcements that reflect some of the numerous ministries that occur in and through St. Peter's.

Presider: Welcome, invitation to share.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Officiant: Let us now feast at the table of God's word.

[Please be Seated]

Lesson: 2 KINGS 2:1-2, 6-14

Reader: Hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm. 77:1-2, 11-20

By your strength you have re-deemed your peo - ple.

You have re - deemed your peo - ple

I will cry aloud to God;

I will cry aloud, and God will hear me.

In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;

my hand was stretched out by night and did not tire;

I refused to be comforted.

I will remember the works of the Lord,

and call to mind your wonders of old.

I will meditate on all your acts

and ponder your mighty deeds.

Refrain

Your way, O God, is holy;

who is so great a god as our God?

You are the God who works wonders

and have declared power among the peoples.

By your strength you have redeemed your people,

the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.

Refrain

The waters saw you, O God; the waters saw you and trembled;

the very depths were shaken.

The clouds poured out water; the skies thundered;

your lightning bolts flashed to and fro;

the sound of your thunder was in the whirlwind;

your lightnings lit up the world;

the earth trembled and shook.

Your way was in the sea, and your paths in the great waters,

yet your footsteps were not seen.
You led your people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Refrain

Lesson: Galatians 5:1, 13-25

And walk the road the saints have trod till all have seen and heard.
As stewards of the earth may we give thanks in one accord
To God who calls us all to be disciples of the Lord.

Sermon

[Please be Seated]

(pause for silent reflection)

Apostles Creed

[Please Stand]

Officiant: Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say

All: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius

Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Confession and Absolution

Officiant: Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; God welcomes sinners and invites us to this table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

(pause for silent reflection)

Officiant: Most merciful God,
All: we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Presider: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

The Peace

Presider: The peace of Christ be always with you.

All: And also with you.

PARISH and COMMUNITY LIFE

Donations

If you would like to contribute to the ongoing ministries of St. Peter's Anglican Church, there are several convenient ways you can do this:

- Ongoing PAR donations can be set up with Laurie Thompson, our Interim Envelope Secretary - contact the church office for her contact info.
- Mail in or drop off a cheque to the church building.
- Donate online through Canada Helps. On the donation page, you are able to allocate your donation to the Primates World Relief and Development Fund, Capital Projects, Mission & Outreach Projects, Grow Hope Project, etc. You will receive your charitable donation receipt immediately upon making the donation. The funds less a nominal administration fee go directly to St. Peter's.

Celebration of New Ministry

Mark your calendars! There have been several changes in the diocese over the past two years, including seven new, or newly-appointed priests. Our own Rev. Tapiwa Gusha is one of these, as well as Rev. Diane Lee, who had a one-year placement with us a couple of years ago. Bishop Geoff is inviting us to a Celebration of New Ministry on Wednesday, June 29th at 7pm at the Cathedral Church of St. John. All are welcome to attend.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

St. Peter's parishioners who love to knit, crochet and pray donate their time and talents to the prayer shawl ministry. Shawls are blessed by our Priest at a worship service. After the blessing, the shawls are available for parishioners to take as gifts to those who would benefit from being embraced in the warmth of a blessed shawl and all the prayers it represents. A message from St. Peter's is attached to each shawl. The shawls are displayed on a decorative ladder in the narthex.

Indigenous Responsive Programs Webinar

28 June 2022 at 3 p.m. ET. In 2021, PWRDF developed the Indigenous Responsive Programs and grant application in consultation with our Indigenous Program Advisory Committee (IPAC). Indigenous-led communities or organizations are invited to apply for a grant from the Responsive Program in the amount of $5,000 to $15,000, for programming that supports safe water, youth engagement, community health and/or climate action. Through this Responsive Programs grant, PWRDF aims to grow our overall Indigenous Development Program and enhance our institutional relationships and partnerships with programs that are Indigenous-led and help us to learn from and with First Nations, Métis and Inuit communities across Canada. In this webinar, you will learn how the Indigenous Responsive Programs Grant works, and you will hear from Freda Lepine from Indigenous People's Alliance of Manitoba-North (IPAM-N) and the Rev. Lori Calkins of the Diocese of Edmonton's Indigenous Cultural Birth Support Worker Program. Both organizations are grant recipients. To register for the webinar please use the following link:
